Manchester Essex Regional High School 2005-2006

To the Class of 2006

It is hard for me to believe that at the moment that you are reading this message, I will have completed my third and final year as Principal of Manchester Essex Regional Middle/High School. To say that these past three years have been rewarding and validating is indeed an understatement. From the day I arrived here, in the third week of July 2003, until these last few days of my tenure here, I have been blessed to have worked with an extraordinarily talented faculty, a highly motivated student body, and a supportive and nururing community. These last three years have been unequivocally the three best years of my 37-year career in public secondary education. If there is anything that I could say to you as you move out into the "real world," my greatest wish is that you have the opportunity to find a career that will be as rewarding to you as mine has been to me.

Class of 2006, I want to thank you for many kindnesses. It is not often that I have the opportunity to "graduate" with a senior class, but this year is an exception. While I will not cross the stage at Hyland Field and receive a diploma, I will cross from one phase of my life to another with the same degree of trepidation and anxiety that you no doubt have experienced this year.

May your life be filled with peace and contentment and may you find a vocation that will fufill your needs while doing good things for others.

I wish you well and hope that our paths will some day cross again. My best to each of you.

Principal Peter Sack

The Class of 2006 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Charlie Hunt.

For the past five years he has been devoted to his work, and has shown an interest in everything we do. He chaperones our trips, such as the trip to New York City, dances the night away at prom, and sings at our talent shows. It has been an honor to have him around.

You are the first person we see every morning. Your hellos and warm welcomes start our days off with smiles. You truly are a gentleman and we are priviledged to dedicate our yearbook to you.

> Sincerly, The Class of 2006

To Our Dear Mrs. Hunt

You have been like a mother to all of us, cheerleading on the sidelines, rooting for our success and keeping us under your wing. Now it's time to let us fly free.

We will never forget all you have done for us as we embark on our journey. We, the class of 2006, want to sincerely thank you for putting us on the right path when we struggled to find it, and for being patient with us. Thank you for your dedication, inspiration, and motivation. You have helped us to find our way. We couldn't have asked for a better advisor or a friend. We love you and will miss you. Class of 2006

Oh! The Places You Will Go!

By Dr. Seuss

Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes You can steer yourself Any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know. And You are the guy who will decide where to go...

And when things start to happen,
Don't worry. Don't stew.
Just go right along.
You'll start happening too.

Oh! The places you will go!

You'll be on your way up!
You'll be seeing great sights!
You'll join the high flyers
Who will soar to high heights.
Whenever you fly, you'll be the best of the best
Wherever you go, you will top all the rest.

You can get all hung up in a prickle-ly perch.
And your gang will fly on. You'll be left in a Lurch.
You'll come down from the Lurch with an unpleasant bump.
And the chances are, then, that you'll be in a Slump.

You can get so confused
That you'll start in to race
Headed, I fear, toward a most useless place.
The Waiting Place...

...Everyone is just waiting...

No! That's not for you! Somehow you'll escape all that waiting and staying. You'll find the bright places where Boom Bands are playing.

Oh! The places you will go!

Fame! You'll be famous as famous can be, With the whole wide world watching you win on TV.

And when you're alone, there's a very good chance You'll meet things that scare you right out of your pants.

There are some, between hither and yon,
That scare you so much you won't want to go on.
On and on you will hike and I know you'll hike far
And face up to your problems, whatever they are.

Step with care and great tact
And remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act.
Just never forget to be dexterious and deft.
And never mix up your right foot with your left.

And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed!

KID, YOU'LL MOVE MOUNTAINS.

So... Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So...get on your way!

WHEREVER YOU FLY, YOU'LL BE THE

WHEREVER YOU GO YOU WILL TOP ALL THE REST.

YOU'LL GET MIXED UP WITH MANY STRANGE BIRDS AS YOU GO.

Faces of old and faces of new. People we know and people we knew. Growing together then drifting apart. Always an ending and now a new start. At graduation we all grow nearer, and all of our friends seem to much dearer. And as we say our final goodbye, one last embrace and one more cry. A "keep in touch" and a "promise I will," a "remember when" but, better still; a place in my heart, you'll always stay. This is what's said as we go our own way. Class of 06'

Thanks for times we've spent together,
I will treasure them forever.

Thank you to my mom and dad,
And all the good times we have had.
And as for Ellyn, Sean and Mary,
You got me through the good, the scary.

Graduating will be the best thing ever,
Simply 'cuz were up there together.
Class of '06 you're the best,
Far better than all the rest.

Don't be anxious about your life. Which of you can add a single hour to your life by being anxious? Don't worry about tomorrow it will worry for itself—Matthew 6. Remember priorities: family, fulfill abilities. Don't forget humility, as you tind your way through the maze of life. Reach tor the light. You hold the key to every opportunity in the world. Over the years, I have learned the importance of both humility and respect. I often act foolishly and degrade myself for it. But I try to improve, & I am truly happy with the life I lead. I really love you & am truly sorry for not having the opportunity of knowing each of you. I pray that each of you reach your goals, obtain desired success, love life constantly & find people who

Here's to the crazy ones. The misfits. The rebels. The troublemakers. The round pegs in the square holes. Thje ones who see things differently. They're not fond of rules. And they have no respect for the status quo. You can praise them, disagree with them, quote them, glorify or valify them. Because they change things. They invent. They imagine. They heal. They explore. They create. They inspire. They push the human race forward. Maybe they have to be crazy. How else can you stare at an empty canvas and see a work of art? Or sit in silence and hear a song that's never been written? While some see them as the crazy ones, we see genius. Because the people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world, are the ones who do. ~Apple~

For me, it all began at Josh's (thanks). Costa Rica (Chris, am/pm does not mean 24/7), the surfing was ill. Tommy, share your candy. Shaun, you only beat me cuz you're tall.

Wakeboarding+Chillin'=dank ish. Lloyed, you're my friend too. Many brew-hahas on the boat-haha. Africalico Kat=the good old days. Pond night jam sessions. Phil, why can't everyone see it like "los tres amigos"? Mike and Mr. Ed are friends forever. Soccer season '05+Tennis Champs. Nantucket '05. Kelsey, how could I make it through the

Hey, we finally did it, we are done with high school. I would just like to thank everyone of making this senior year awesome. I would also like to send a very special thanks to my Mom and Dad for believing in me and supporting me through the years. And to Nana and Grampy, I owe you guys so much; you have done so much for me. I love you all. On the second point I want to say I'm always going to remember the high times I have had with my buddies, like that one time when Colin smashed that street sign and some old dude came out and yelled at him. That was hilarrous. Randy Rhoads is the man. Im/

Here's a lyrical maze of my most recent days, sometimes a lazy haze or maybe set ablaze, by the love of my class, always down to kick #5%, we're cherished like green grass and strong as plexiglass. The Senior Class '06 has a new bag of tricks, sworn on the River Styx to spice your daily mix. To my varsity team who never lost the dream, to advance from downstream and emerge as supreme: What more can I scream other than "%$#@in' extreme!!" High school was a pleasure, my 7 o'clock treasure. Putting all jokes aside, this has been quite a ride. But to the best of my knowledge, we will have more fun in college! Now my final remarks to all the ladies & sharks: Live it up while you can & stick it to the man, remember what was best & good luck on your quest! Love you mom & dad (even when I'm bad).

"And I'd go through it all, all-over again, to be able to feel this way..." I truly love our class. We are all so special in our own ways; I know everyone will be successful in whatever they do. Even if my actions didn't always show it, I admire everyone for being who they are, and it is going to kill me to leave our little Manchester-Essex world. So many good times had, so many to come; I couldn't imagine growing up anywhere else. Jimmy--you've taught me so much over the time we've been together, I love you so much, I wouldn't be who I am without you. Sammy--You're the bravest person I know, no matter where you are you'll always be in my heart. Girlz--I've never met a more diverse group, everyone is different and brings their own qualities to the mix, you're all crazy, and I love it!

I could not have asked for a better editor-in-chief. You have assumed the responsibility for this colossal endeavor with dignity and grace. Though I know that it was not always easy, I appreciate how you have persevered through the challenges. You have led the staff to the completion of a beautiful book.

Erika

From coming up with the theme to working hard each day laying out pages and teaching staff members, the yearbook could not have come together without you. Your personal style is evident in its pages, and we were all lucky that you agreed to be an editor. Great job on this huge responsibility!

Hannah

Your creative touch has helped to make this book truly beautiful. I always knew that, no matter how overextended you felt, you would always complete your pages on time with seeming ease. I really appreciate that you never let on that there was a problem, even when I know there were many! You truly take on the role you are given with style.

Many Thanks and Best Wishes, Mrs. Kesterson

2006 CLASS SONG "WILD WORLD"

CAT STEPHENS

JNow that I've lost everything to you
You say you wanna start something new
And it's breakin' my heart you're leavin'
Baby, I'm grievin'
But if you wanna leave, take good care
Hope you have a lot of nice things to wear
But then a lot of nice things turn bad out there

Oh, baby, baby, it's a wild world It's hard to get by just upon a smile Oh, baby, baby, it's a wild world and I'll always remember you like a child, girl

You know I've seen a lot of what the world can do
And it's breakin' my heart in two
Because I never wanna see you a sad, girl
Don't be a bad girl
But if you wanna leave, take good care
Hope you make a lot of nice friends out there
But just remember there's a lot of bad and beware

Oh, baby, baby, it's a wild world It's hard to get by just upon a smile Oh, baby, baby, it's a wild world and I'll always remember you like a child, girl

Baby, I love you
But if you wanna leave, take good care
Hope you make a lot of nice friends out there
But just remember there's a lot of bad and beware

Oh, baby, baby, it's a wild world It's hard to get by just upon a smile Oh, baby, baby, it's a wild world and I'll always remember you like a child, girl

Mama told me when I was young Come sit heside me, my only son And listen closely to what I say. And if you do this It will help you some sunny day. Take your time... don't live too fast, Troubles will come and they will pass. Go find a woman and you'll find love, And don't forget son, There is someone up above.

And be a simple kind of man. Be something you love and understand Be a simple kind of man. Won't you do this for me son, If you can?

Forget your lust for the rich man's gold All that you need is in your soul, And you can do this if you try. All that I want for you my son, Is to be satisfied.
